The Grace B. Keyes Trophy

Grace Keyes, a charter member of The Women's Golf Association of Boston and a member of Concord Country Club served as President of the Association from 1902-1907.

In 1950, she presented a trophy to the Women's Golf Association of Massachusetts for an annual competition in a Stroke Play Championship. The first tournament was held in 1950 at Charles River Country Club, as a 54-hole event. In 1958 the competition was shortened to a 36-hole stroke play event.
